

SharePoint Developer

Position Summary

The SharePoint Developer will be responsible for the custom development and design of Moss 2007. They will work with SharePoint to provide technical solutions for the client.

Responsibilities:

- Develop and support business functions
- Design portal components (Web Parts), customizing, integrating with third party solutions, and implementing an Enterprise SharePoint solution
- Contribute to the creation of business software specifications, develop and enhance computer software programs, and perform business analysis and quality assurance testing
- Design and implement program logic
- Develop programming specifications, logic flow charts, and process diagrams
- Collaborate with business personnel to define requirements of programming efforts
- Report progress and status of assigned tasks to project teams and managers
- Troubleshoot and resolve issues

Requirements:

- 5+ years of experience developing software for business applications
- Professional experience in website development
- Solid grasp of MOSS 2007 design and implementation
- Passion for and understanding of design patterns, standards and brand guidelines
- Understanding of the following languages: C#, XML, ASP.NET, AJAX, CSS, WCF, WWF, HTML and SQL
- Excellent analytical and problem-solving skills
- Strong oral and written communication skills
- Bachelors degree or higher with a strong preference towards computer and base sciences or mathematics